(57) CLAIM

I claim the ornamental design for a fabric with pattern, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

A portion of the disclosure of this patent document contains material to which a claim for copyright is made. The copyright owner has no objection to the reproduction of the patent document or the patent disclosure, as it appears in the U.S. Patent Office records, but reserves all other copyright rights whatsoever.

The sole FIGURE is a top plan view of the fabric with pattern of the new design.

The reverse side of the fabric with pattern is not included in the claim. The broken lines surrounding the figure and forming a boundary to the claim depict portions of the fabric with pattern that form no part of the claimed design.
