Genesis

THE CREATION

1. In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
2. Now the earth was a formless void, darkness covered the surface of the watery abyss, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. From God came the light, and the light was good.
3. God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light "day" and the darkness "night." There was evening, and there was morning, the first day.
4. The second day, God separated the waters from the earth, creating the atmosphere and the heavens.
5. God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And God did so.
6. God called the dry land "earth" and the gathering of the waters "seas." And God saw that it was good.
7. The third day, God said, "Let the earth bring forth vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees bearing fruit, each with its seed in it, and the trees bearing fruit with their seed in them." And God did so.
8. The fourth day, God said, "Let there be lights in the sky to separate the day from the night. They will be signs to mark the seasons, the days, and the years." And God did so.
9. God made two great lights: the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He set them in the sky to give light to the earth, and to separate the day from the night. And God saw that it was good.
10. The fifth day, God said, "Let the waters be filled with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in open skies." And God did so.
11. The sixth day, God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: cattle and wild animals, and all creatures that creep on the ground." And God did so.
12. Finally, God created man in His own image, as a male and a female. He blessed them and gave them dominion over the earth and all living creatures.

THE SEVENTH DAY

On the seventh day, God rested from all His work that He had done in six days. He blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work that He had done in creating the heavens and the earth.

Thus, the heavens and the earth were finished in six days, and on the seventh day God rested and was refreshed.

MARY AND WOMEN IN THE GARDEN

1. These are the names of the women who were created by God: Eve, the first woman, and Mary, the second woman.
2. Eve was created from the rib of Adam, and Mary was created from the rib of Adam's side.
3. Eve was given to Adam as his helpmate, and Mary was given to Adam as his helpmate.
4. Eve was named "Eve" because she was the mother of all living.
5. Mary was named "Mary" because she was the mother of Jesus.
6. Eve was the first woman to be created, and Mary was the second woman to be created.
7. Eve was the first woman to be named, and Mary was the second woman to be named.
8. Eve was the first woman to be created in the Garden of Eden, and Mary was the second woman to be created in the Garden of Eden.
9. Eve was the first woman to be named "Eve," and Mary was the second woman to be named "Mary."
10. Eve was the first woman to be created in the Garden of Eden, and Mary was the second woman to be created in the Garden of Eden.
11. Eve was the first woman to be named "Eve," and Mary was the second woman to be named "Mary."
12. Eve was the first woman to be created in the Garden of Eden, and Mary was the second woman to be created in the Garden of Eden.
