(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a display screen with transitional graphical user interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a face view of a first embodiment of a display screen with transitional graphical user interface, showing a first image thereof;

FIG. 2 is a second image of the first embodiment of the display screen with transitional graphical user interface;

FIG. 3 is a third image of the first embodiment of the display screen with transitional graphical user interface;

FIG. 4 is a face view of a second embodiment of a display screen with transitional graphical user interface, showing a first image thereof;

FIG. 5 is a second image of the second embodiment of the display screen with transitional graphical user interface;

FIG. 6 is a face view of a third embodiment of a display screen with transitional graphical user interface, showing a first image thereof;

FIG. 7 is a second image of the third embodiment of the display screen with transitional graphical user interface;

FIG. 8 is a third image of the third embodiment of the display screen with transitional graphical user interface; and,

FIG. 9 is a fourth image of the third embodiment of the display screen with transitional graphical user interface.

The outermost dashed broken line showing of a display screen in all views forms no part of the claimed design.

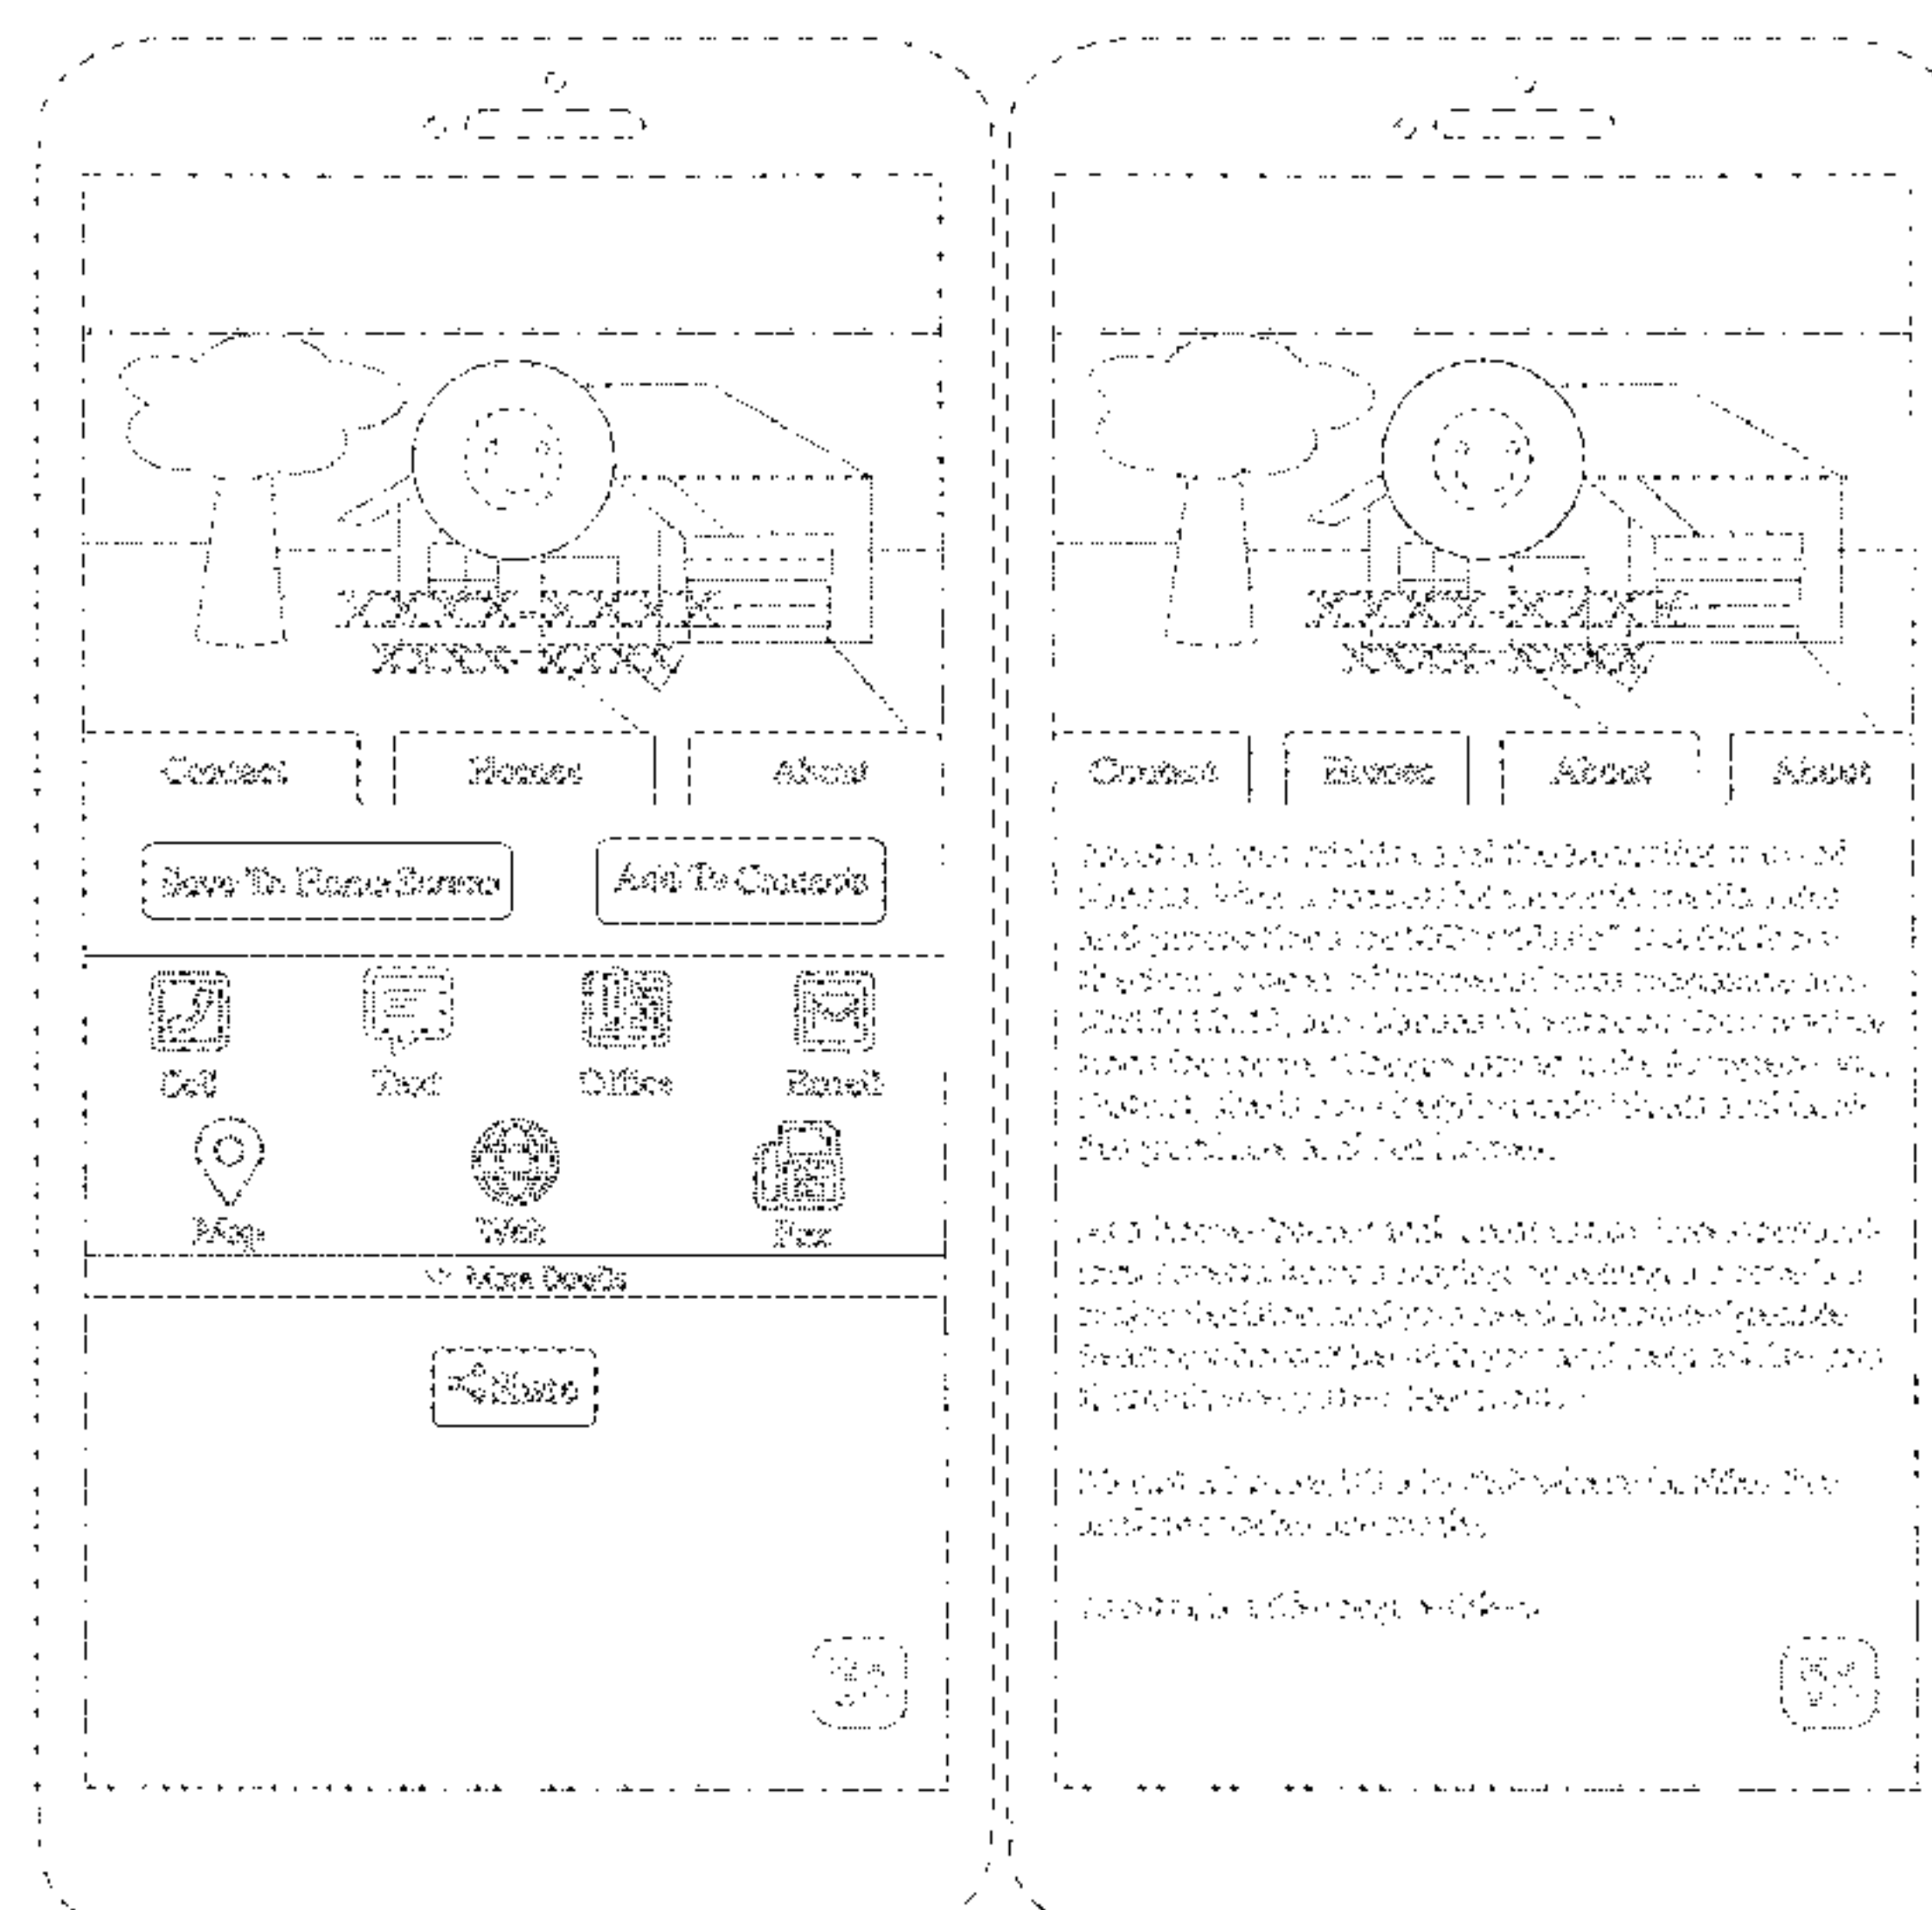

The dash-dash-dot broken lines show a boundary line and form no part of the claimed design.

The dotted broken lines form no part of the claimed design.

The appearance of the graphical user interface of the first embodiment sequentially transitions between the images shown in FIGS. 1-3. The appearance of the graphical user interface of the second embodiment sequentially transitions between the images shown in FIGS. 4-5. The appearance of the graphical user interface of the third embodiment sequentially transitions between the images shown in FIGS. 6-9.

The process or period in which one image transitions to another forms no part of the claimed design.
