FIG. 1 is a front view of a multiple-function plate combining a ballistic resistant armor barrier with a display barrier, showing my new design in a first embodiment;

FIG. 2 is a rear view thereof showing an extension plate in a folded position;

FIG. 3 is a top, rear, right side perspective view showing the extension plate in an unfolded position, held by a user; and, FIG. 4 is a top, front, left side perspective view of a multiple-function plate combining a ballistic resistant armor barrier with a display barrier, showing an extension plate in a folded position and attached to a moveable supporter, showing my new design in a second embodiment.

The broken lines depicting a person (FIG. 1, and FIG. 3) and an art drawing on the surface of the display plate (FIGS. 1 and 4) represent environmental subject matter that form no part of the claimed design. The remaining broken lines on the plate itself depict portions of the multiple-function plate combining a ballistic resistant armor barrier with a display barrier that form no part of the claimed design.

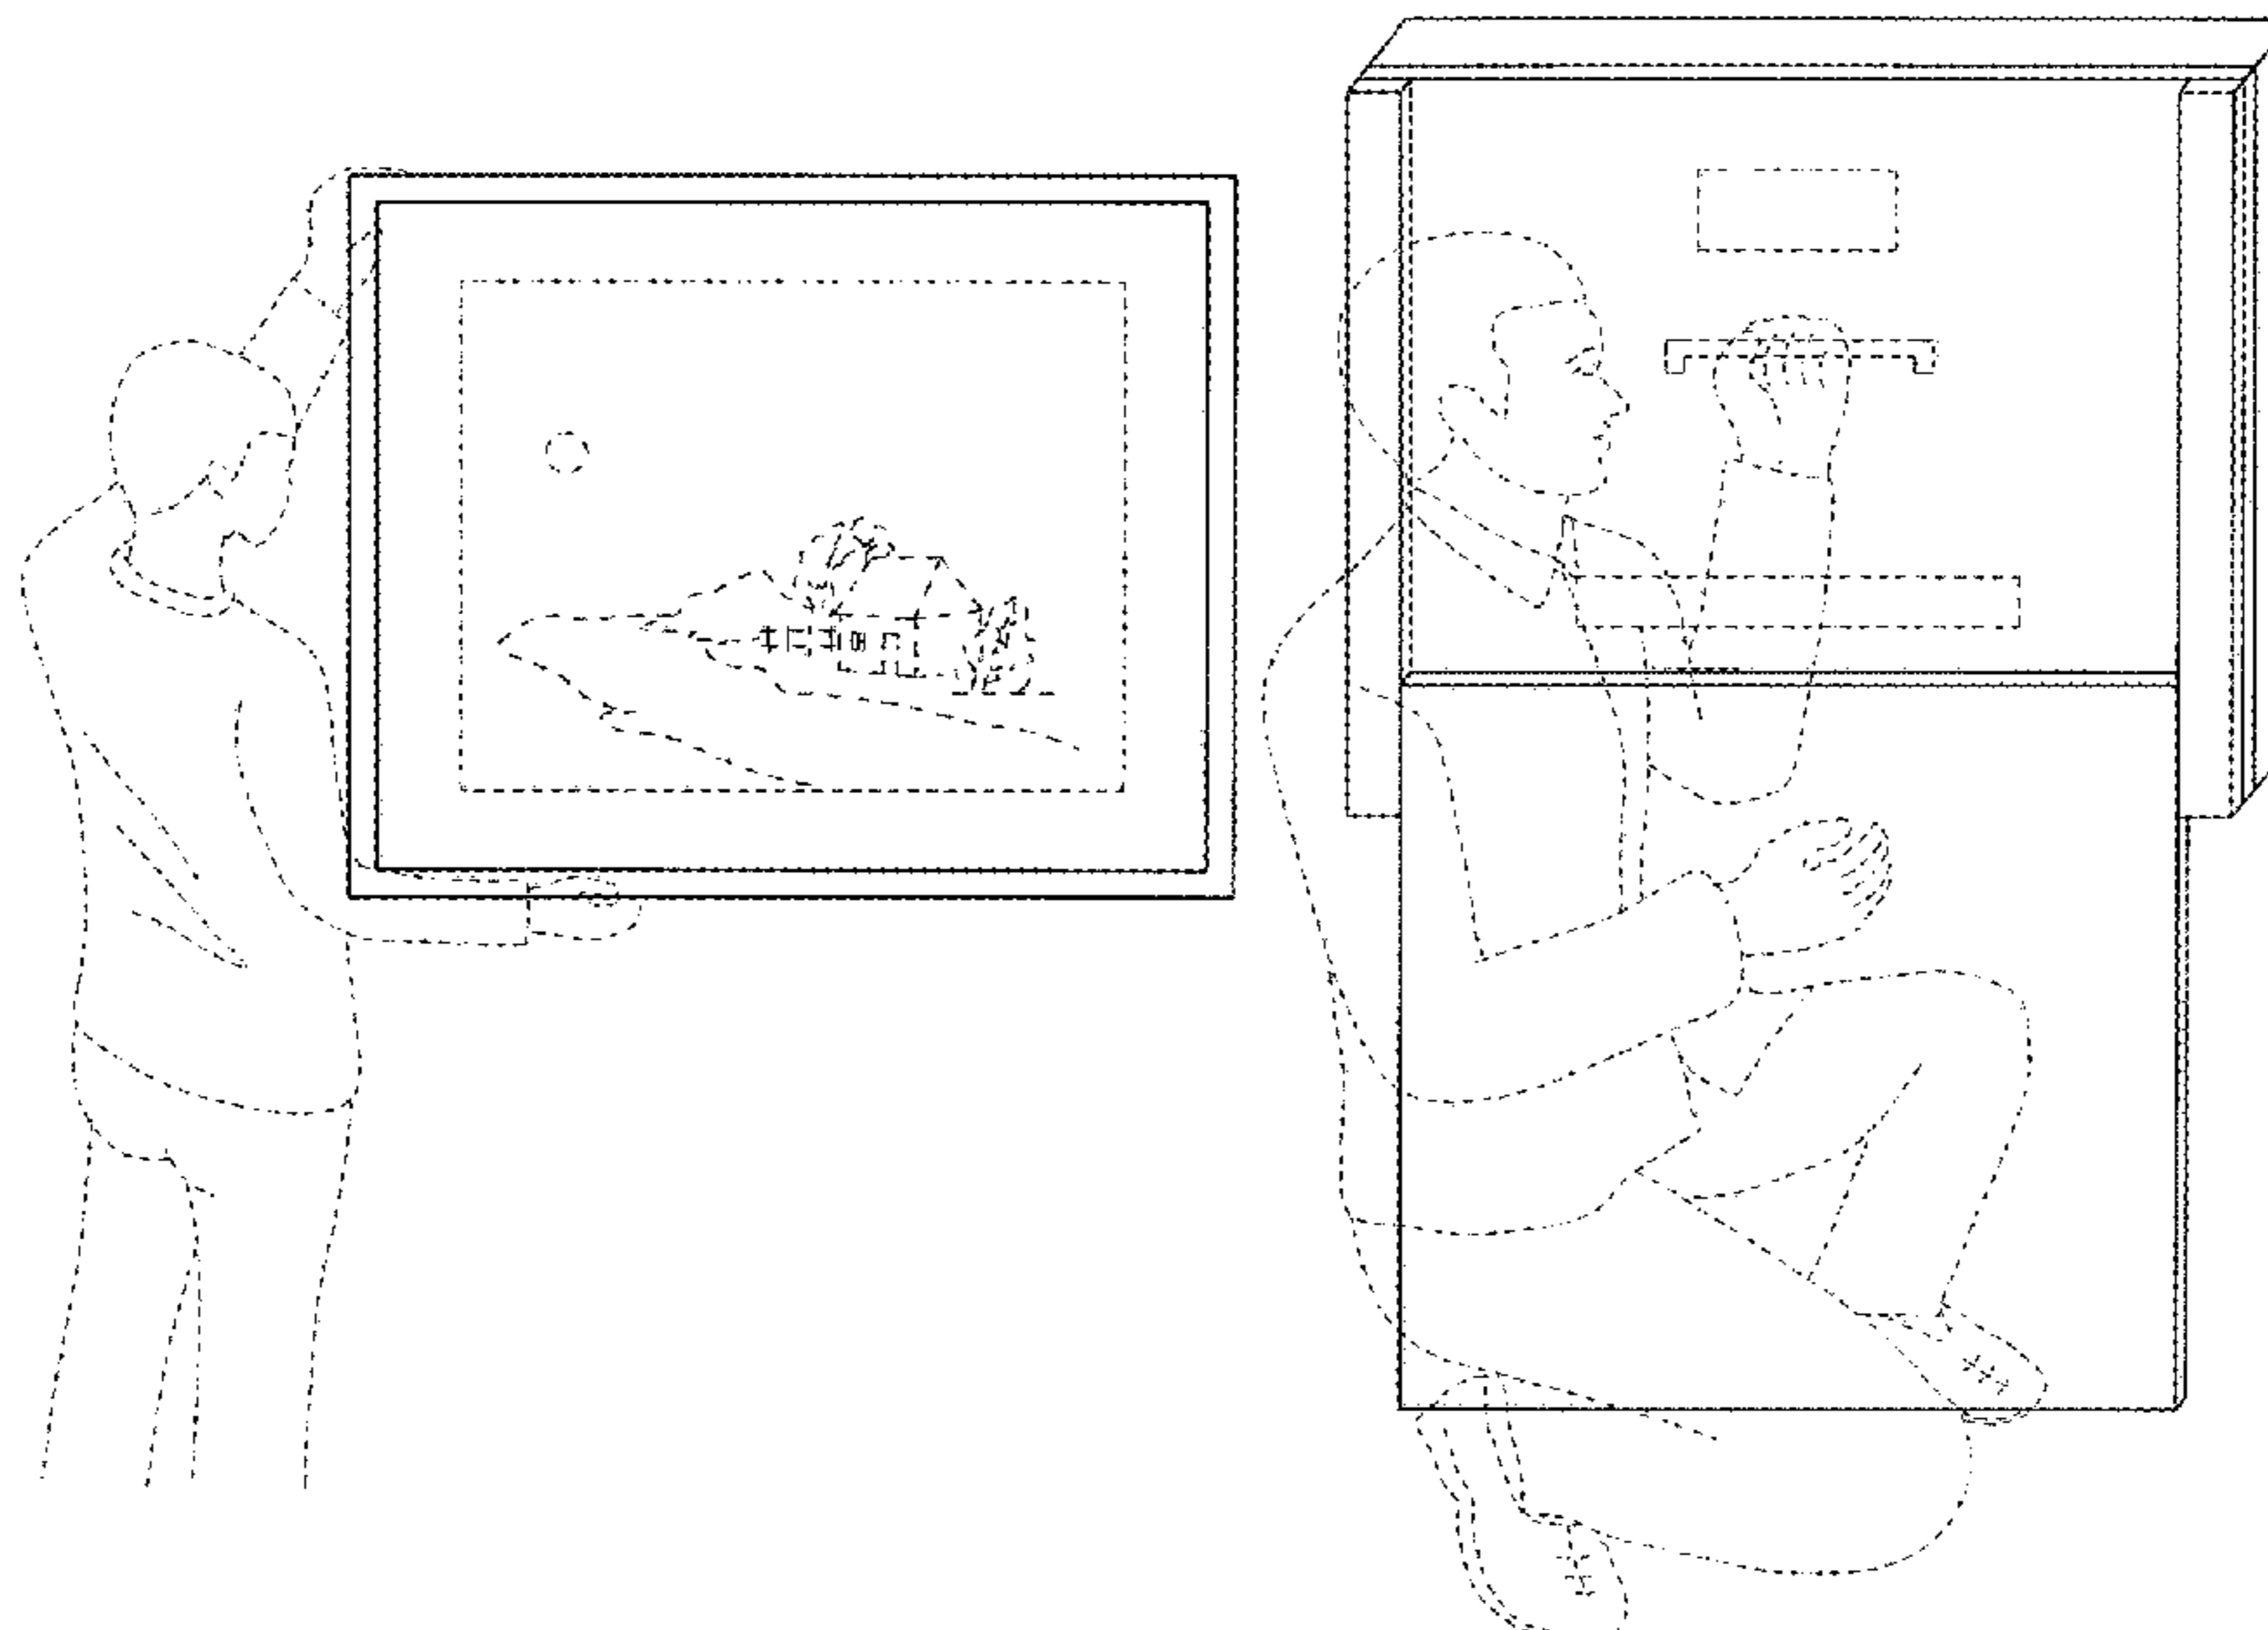

The display barrier of the multiple-function plate can include a poster board, drawing board, writing board, or display frame for artwork. In one embodiment, the multiple-function plate can hang on a wall (FIG. 1-3). In another embodiment, the multiple-function plate can be attached to a moveable supporting holder (FIG. 4).
