(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for an automotive vehicle display screen with a graphical user interface for electrical charging, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The FIGURE is a front view showing an automotive vehicle display screen with a graphical user interface for electrical charging, of our new design. The outermost broken line rectangle shows the display screen, and forms no part of the claimed design. The white broken lines within the display screen show bounds of the claimed design and form no part thereof. The stippled or misty appearance of areas within the vehicle body outline, form part of the claimed design.
