(57) CLAIM

We claim the ornamental design for an automotive vehicle display screen with a graphical user interface for HVAC, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

The FIGURE is a front view of an automotive vehicle display screen with a graphical user interface for HVAC, showing the new design.

The outermost broken line rectangle shows the display screen, and forms no part of the claimed design. The white broken lines within the display screen show bounds of the claimed design and form no part thereof. Stippled areas, showing the appearance of airflow leading to various areas of seats, form part of the claimed design.
